

Course Number

ENS-497-01

Course Description

Senior-level independent research on an environmentally related topic. Substantial writing is required for ENS 497 (must satisfy WAC-WS requirements, for which WS credit is awarded). Topics are chosen in consultation with, and conducted under the direction of the student's senior research advisor. The results of senior research are presented to an audience of faculty members and peers. Please note: This option is not open to environmental policy majors.
