Course Description
A required interdisciplinary course designed as the culmination of the major or minor. This course reinforces and provides a coherent perspective on the major issues in gender studies and affords an opportunity to reflect upon the importance of the chosen major and/or minor focus in light of these issues. The topic of the capstone course varies from year to year; this year's will be Women's Rights in the United States in the fall and Feminist Film in the spring, cross-listed as EGL 304 and PSC 339, respectively.
