Course Number FRN-307-01 Course Description This study of the Black diaspora in French in the 1930s examines a variety of political and literary strategies developed in reaction to French colonial policies before the era of official independences. We consider authors such as Cesaire, Damas, Senghor, Fanon, and Sartre to better understand how these writers represent influences on the literatures of decolonization and post-colonial identity. Academic Term 22/WI Instructor Ndiaye, Cheikh Location & Meeting Time Karp Hall-101+ T/TH 09:00AM-10:45AM LEC Credits 1.00 Capacity 15 Total Students 8 Common Curriculum LCCF French HUM Arts & Humanities WAC Writing Across Curriculum Interdisciplinary Programs Africana Studies Latin American Studies Academic Department Modern Languages Field Of Study French (FRN)