Course Number MLT-339-01 Course Description The course examines cinematic representations of the Holocaust in the films of German, German-Jewish, and other European filmmakers. Comparing and contrasting a variety of film genres and cinematic techniques, we explore fundamental questions about the relationships between art and history, representation and experience and memory and responsibility. By considering theoretical and historical readings as well, we situate the films within significant intellectual and historical contexts. Academic Term 22/WI Instructor Ricci Bell, Michele Location & Meeting Time Wold Center-010+ T/TH 10:55AM-12:40PM LEC Credits 1.00 Capacity 25 Total Students 27 Common Curriculum LCC Languages & Cultures HUM Arts & Humanities WAC Writing Across Curriculum Interdisciplinary Programs Film Studies Academic Department Modern Languages Field Of Study Mod Lit in Trans (MLT)