

Course Number

ATH-342-01

Course Description

Students review skills learned in earlier acting classes with a higher degree of emphasis on performance. Professional workshops in acting technique are offered such as Meisner, Chekhov, or Grotowski techniques. Focus is on in-depth textual analysis - discovering in the inner workings of a play, of scenes and monologues and the making of character choices. Students will gain an understanding the work of a professional actor, and the discipline of the theatre business.

Academic Term

22/WI

Instructor

Fuller, Marcus

Location & Meeting Time

Yulman Theatre-101 T/TH 10:55AM-12:40PM LEC

Credits

1.00

Capacity

12

Total Students

6

Common Curriculum

HUM Arts & Humanities

Academic Department

Theatre & Dance

Field Of Study

Theater Arts (ATH)