

Course Number

ATH-110-01

Course Description

This course seeks to introduce students to the language and practice of technical theatre. It covers the basics of tools, hardware, theatrical construction, safety practices, lighting, painting and the physical space. Additional weekly lab hours are required for the hands-on experience of building the department production and are scheduled once the term begins at the mutual convenience of student and instructor.

Academic Term

22/SP

Instructor

Bodd, Drew

Location & Meeting Time

Yulman Theatre-101 T/TH 10:55AM-12:40PM LEC

Credits

1.00

Capacity

12

Total Students

13

Common Curriculum

HUM Arts & Humanities

Academic Department

Theatre & Dance

Field Of Study

Theater Arts (ATH)