

Course Number

HST-304-01

Course Description

This course will explore the Cold War period in African history with particular focus on theaters of conflict, such as the Congo, the Horn of Africa, and Angola, as well as revolutionary movements. We will examine modes of governance and political culture in African states, socialist and capitalist variants of development, and their discontents.

Academic Term

22/FA

Instructor

Peterson, Brian

Location & Meeting Time

Karp Hall-001+ T/TH 09:00AM-10:45AM LEC

Credits

1.00

Capacity

19

Total Students

20

Additional Information

<http://www.union.edu/History>

Common Curriculum

LCC

SOCS

WAC

Interdisciplinary Programs

Africana Studies

Academic Department

History

Field Of Study

History (HST)