Course Number PSC-112-01 Course Description An overview of 21st century dynamics that shape national politics in different regional settings, the behavior of states in the world arena, and how global actors impact each other. Depending on the instructor, topics to be explored could include war, terrorism, political economy, historical perspectives, cultural tensions, nationbuilding and development, imperialism, democracy, balance of power, human rights, emerging institutions, and the world's ecology. In all sections, attention will be paid to the development of political arguments, the critical use of concepts and theories, and strategies of making judgments about globalization and about the impact of international affairs on domestic politics and vice-versa. Academic Term 20/FA Instructor Lobe, Thomas Location & Meeting Time Synchronous Online-ONLI T/TH 11:15AM-01:00PM LEC Petition Ν Credits 1.00 Capacity 40 Total Students 32 Additional Information http://www.union.edu/PoliticalScience Common Curriculum SOCS Social Science Academic Department Political Science Field Of Study Political Science (PSC)