Course Number AVA-282-01 Course Description Through this intensive Digital Art course, students will learn how to navigate the complex and rich world of computer aided graphic design. Using Adobe Illustrator, Adobe After Effect, InDesign and several input and output techniques, students will gain experience in a variety of industry standard topics. These will include logo design, branding, information architecture, package design, webpage aesthetics, kinetic typography and the history of computer aided graphic design. Academic Term 21/WI Instructor Orellana, Fernando Location & Meeting Time Visual Arts Building-118+ T/TH 06:00PM-09:00PM LEC Hybrid-HYBR LEC Petition Ν Credits 1.00 Capacity 14 Total Students 12 Common Curriculum HUM Arts & Humanities Academic Department Studio Arts Field Of Study Studio Arts (AVA)