Course Number ATH-231-01 Course Description This is a studio performance course in vocal technique for the stage or other performance media. Class work will include daily physical and vocal limbering designed to develop a free and natural speaking voice. Extensive exercises for the breath, resonation and articulation will be given to develop an awareness and appropriate use of the voice. In class presentations of scripted material, extracts from dramatic literature and readings of stories or poetry put into practice the techniques of this performance course. Instruction in dialect work for the stage will be included. Examinations will include presentations of memorized text following a vocal workout program in the Linklater method. Academic Term 21/WI Instructor McNulty, Caryn Location & Meeting Time Synchronous Online-ONLI M/W/F 12:20PM-01:25PM LEC Petition Ν Credits 1.00 Capacity 10 Total Students 0 Additional Information http://www.union.edu/academic depts/theater dance/ Common Curriculum HUM Arts & Humanities Academic Department Theatre & Dance Field Of Study Theater Arts (ATH)