

Course Number

MLT-260-01

Course Description

We will discuss the present distribution of the East European peoples, their prehistory, and their relation to other peoples of Europe and Asia. We will also survey their early culture, including pagan, animistic, and dualistic religious beliefs, and Christianization. Our focus will be the myth of the vampire, which has had enduring power not only in Eastern European folk belief but also in American popular culture right up to the present day.

Academic Term

22/WI

Instructor

Bidoshi, Kristin

Location & Meeting Time

Karp Hall-001+ M/W 03:05PM-04:45PM LEC

Credits

1.00

Capacity

40

Total Students

35

Common Curriculum

LCC Languages & Cultures

HUL Literature

HUM Arts & Humanities

Interdisciplinary Programs

Russian & E European Studies

Film Studies

Academic Department

Modern Languages

Field Of Study

Mod Lit in Trans (MLT)