Course Number PHL-246-01 Course Description An examination of the traditional aesthetic theories of philosophers such as Plato, Aristotle, Burke, Hume, Schopenhauer, and Nietzsche, as well as more recent theories. Among the issues considered will be how art is different from everyday objects and the impact of technology on art. Academic Term 22/SP Instructor Friedell, David Location & Meeting Time Karp Hall-002+ T/TH 07:00PM-08:45PM LEC Credits 1.00 Capacity 20 Total Students 17 Additional Information http://www.union.edu/Philosophy Common Curriculum HUM Arts & Humanities Academic Department Philosophy Field Of Study Philosophy (PHL)