

Course Number

FRN-306T-01

Course Description

Readings about French and Francophone Cultures: This course examines France, its history, and socio-cultural dynamics through a variety of lenses including fiction, essays, films, newspapers, and daily life experience. You will be asked to use all four language skills in French (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) both in and out of class as tools towards development of a fifth skill, that of cultural awareness and critical thinking.

Academic Term

22/FA

Instructor

Batson, Charles

By Permission of Instructor

Y

Credits

1.00

Capacity

15

Total Students

9

Common Curriculum

LCCF

HUM

WAC

DNS

Academic Department

Modern Languages

Field Of Study

French (FRN)