Course Number HST-304-01 Course Description This course will explore the Cold War period in African history with particular focus on theaters of conflict, such as the Congo, the Horn of Africa, and Angola, as well as revolutionary movements. We will examine modes of governance and political culture in African states, socialist and capitalist variants of development, and their discontents. Academic Term 22/FA Instructor Peterson, Brian Location & Meeting Time Karp Hall-001+ T/TH 09:00AM-10:45AM LEC Credits 1.00 Capacity 19 Total Students 19 Additional Information http://www.union.edu/History Common Curriculum LCC SOCS WAC Interdisciplinary Programs Africana Studies Academic Department History Field Of Study History (HST)