Course Number ADA-350-01 Course Description This course emphasizes the creation of a dance piece in collaboration with selected dancers, designers (costumes, props or projections), musicians or any interdisciplinary artists. Students must create a group choreography that will be innovative, express their own style, a specific theme or concept. Students will act as artistic directors, overseeing their creation and being in charge of their collaborators. Their choreography will be presented either in the Winter Dance Concert series or at the Steinmetz Symposium. A weekly technical dance class is required. Academic Term 20/FA Petition Ν Credits 1.00 Capacity 15 Total Students 0 Additional Information http://www.union.edu/academic_depts/theater_dance/ Common Curriculum HUM Arts & Humanities Academic Department Dance Field Of Study Dance (ADA)