An introduction to the basic technique and vocabulary of Jazz dance. Each class will incorporate dynamic body movements, flexibility, strength and coordination through center combinations and across the floor progressions. This class is danced to contemporary music.