

Course Number

SPN-328-01

Course Description

This course reflects on how Latin American identities are constructed through the lenses of written, visual, and oral texts. Latin-American cultural identities are conceived as processes initiated and sustained by the merging of radically different cultures that framed and continue to shape people's lives.. Particularly, the course explores the impact of gender relations, ethnicity, urban spaces, cultural practices and beliefs on identity. Substantive theoretical readings will complement the assignments.

Academic Term

21/WI

Instructor

Osuna, Maritza

Location & Meeting Time

Synchronous Online-ONLI T/TH 02:25PM-04:10PM LEC

Petition

N

Credits

1.00

Capacity

20

Total Students

14

Additional Information

<http://www.union.edu/ModernLanguages>

Common Curriculum

WAC Writing Across Curriculum

LCCS Spanish

HUM Arts & Humanities

Interdisciplinary Programs

Latin American Studies

Gender/Sexuality/Women's St

Academic Department

Modern Languages

Field Of Study

Spanish (SPN)