

Course Number

PHL-246-01

Course Description

An examination of the traditional aesthetic theories of philosophers such as Plato, Aristotle, Burke, Hume, Schopenhauer, and Nietzsche, as well as more recent theories. Among the issues considered will be how art is different from everyday objects and the impact of technology on art.

Academic Term

21/WI

Instructor

Friedell, David

Location & Meeting Time

O'Brien Center for Collaborative Engagement-117 M/W/F 12:20PM-01:25PM LEC

Petition

N

Credits

1.00

Capacity

20

Total Students

12

Additional Information

<http://www.union.edu/Philosophy>

Common Curriculum

HUM Arts & Humanities

Academic Department

Philosophy

Field Of Study

Philosophy (PHL)