

Course Number

EGL-100-03

Course Description

Students will explore the art of poetry by examining a selection of poems from at least three cultures and by considering how poetry conveys its complex meanings through voice, image, rhythm, as well as formal and experimental structures. Particular attention will be given to developing reading and writing skills.

Academic Term

21/SP

Instructor

Lynes, Katherine

Location & Meeting Time

Asynchronous Online-ONLI LEC

Petition

Y

Credits

1.00

Capacity

19

Total Students

22

Additional Information

<http://www.union.edu/English>

Common Curriculum

HUL Literature

WAC Writing Across Curriculum

HUM Arts & Humanities

Academic Department

English

Field Of Study

English (EGL)